² For ILP sub-fund that feeds 100% into an underlying CIS fund, some of the information provided below could be similar to the underlying CIS fund.

Investment Strategy
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The ILP Sub-Fund invest primarily in US equity markets. Under normal market conditions, the fund typically invests at least 80%, and not less than two thirds, of its assets in equity securities of companies that are organised, or have substantial business activities, in the US. In actively managing the ILP Sub-Fund, the manager focuses on US large-capitalisation companies. The manager uses fundamental research to build a comparatively concentrated, high conviction portfolio of securities (typically 40-60 companies) that the manager believes are of high quality and have superior long-term growth characteristics (bottom-up approach). The ILP Sub-Fund investments may include convertible securities, depositary receipts and ETFs. The ILP Sub-Fund may invest up to 15% of its assets in equity securities of non-US companies issued by companies with substantial business activities in the US. The ILP Sub-Fund may be exposed to any currency. The ILP Sub-Fund uses derivatives for hedging (reducing risks) and efficient portfolio management ("EPM"). 	Refer to "Investment Objective, Focus and Approach" of the Singapore Prospectus and "Derivatives and EPM Techniques" of the Luxembourg Prospectus for further information.
Parties Involved
WHO ARE YOU INVESTING WITH? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Investment-Linked Plan Provider is Etiqa Insurance Pte. Ltd. The ILP Sub-Fund Manager is AllianceBernstein (Luxembourg) S.à r.l. The Custodian is Brown Brothers Harriman (Luxembourg) S.C.A. The Auditor is Ernst & Young S.A. 	Refer to "Singapore Representative", "Singapore Directory", "Management Company and Investment Manager", "Depositary and Depositary Arrangements" and "Auditor" of the Prospectus for further information on the role and responsibilities.
KEY RISKS
WHAT ARE THE KEY RISKS OF THIS INVESTMENT? The price of Shares of the ILP sub-fund and its dividends or coupons may fall as well as rise. These risk factors may cause you to lose some or all of your investment.	Refer to "Main Risks" in the Singapore Prospectus for further information.
Market and Credit Risks
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> You are exposed to concentration / focus risk The ILP Sub-Fund may invest invests a large portion of its assets in a limited number of industries, sectors or issuers, or within a limited geographical area, it can be riskier and subject to greater volatility than a fund that invests more broadly. A concentrated or focused portfolio will, by definition, be more sensitive to the factors that determine market value for the area of focus. These factors may include economic, financial or market conditions as well as social, political, economic, environmental or other factors.
Liquidity Risks
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The ILP Sub-Fund is not listed and you can redeem the Shares only on each Valuation Date. There is no secondary market for the ILP Sub-Fund. The redemption requests may be made to Etiqa Insurance Pte. Ltd. Note that you are exposed to liquidity risk of the ILP Sub-Fund's investments and your redemption request may be deferred or suspended. A redemption limit may be imposed if requests are received to redeem more than 10% of the Shares of the ILP Sub-Fund outstanding. Further, your right to redeem may be temporarily suspended under certain circumstances.

Product-Specific Risks
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> You are exposed to derivative risks Derivatives are financial contracts whose value is derived from that of an underlying asset, rate or eligible index. Small movements in the value of an underlying asset, reference rate or eligible index can create large changes in the value of a derivative, making derivatives highly volatile in general and exposing the ILP Sub-Fund to potential losses significantly greater than the cost of the derivative. The ILP Sub-Fund may use derivatives for various reasons, such as hedging, EPM and investment purposes. Derivatives are specialised instruments that require investment techniques and risk analyses different from those associated with traditional securities. Derivatives are subject to the risks of the underlying asset(s), typically in modified and greatly amplified form, as well as carrying their own risks You are exposed to equity security risks Equities can lose value rapidly, in response to such factors as activities of individual companies, general market or economic conditions, or changes in currency exchange rates. Equities typically involve higher (often significantly higher) market risks than bonds, money market instruments, or other debt securities. Equities typically represent an ownership interest in an issuer. Equity securities include common stock, preferred stock, securities convertible into common or preferred stock and equity interest in partnerships, trusts or other types of equity securities. Purchases of initial public offerings of stock may involve higher risks due to various factors including limited shares, unseasoned trading, lack of investor knowledge and lack of operating history of the issuing company.
