Message from Raymond Ong, CEO, Etiqa Singapore Pte Ltd

Dear Customers

I am pleased to present our semi-annual report on fund performance for the period ending 30 June 2025, along with our outlook for the remainder of the year.

The first half of 2025 was a dynamic period shaped by rapid market shifts driven by policy changes, global trade developments and major geopolitical events. Despite the challenges these factors presented to global growth and market stability, our portfolio funds demonstrated resilience and delivered positive returns across all portfolio funds. Across the individual sub-funds, equities saw mixed performance amid market fluctuations, while fixed income and mixed asset funds generally posted strong gains – reinforcing the value of diversification in uncertain conditions.

Looking ahead, we expect continued volatility as global policy directions evolve. The current lack of clarity around U.S. policies and geopolitical shifts continues to influence decisions by policymakers, businesses and investors. Nonetheless, encouraging progress seen in both the U.S.-UK trade agreement and U.S.-China talks points to a more stable and constructive global trade outlook which can help to frame future discussions and negotiations.

In navigating this environment, we continue to advocate for a steady, long-term investment strategy. Approaches such as dollar-cost averaging, combined with a well-diversified portfolio, remain highly effective in managing short-term market fluctuations while positioning for long-term growth.

With diversification as a guiding principle, we recommend structuring your portfolios to draw steady income from a range of sources to help manage volatility while staying invested in an evolving global landscape for investment opportunities ahead.

We want to assure you that Etiqa is fully committed to managing your investments with care and discipline and a clear focus on your medium to long-term financial goals.

On behalf of everyone at Etiqa, I sincerely thank you for your continued trust and support. We remain committed to serving your investment and insurance needs with care, integrity and diligence.

Warm regards

Raymond Ong
CEO, Etiqa Insurance Pte Ltd
