What you should know about early surrender of your Insurance Policy

1. An insurance policy is intended to meet your long term financial needs. Therefore, it may be disadvantageous for you to surrender/partially withdraw a policy before its maturity date. Some disadvantages are:
 - You are losing valuable benefits from the policy:
 - You are losing the insurance protection offered by your policy;
 - You may not be able to achieve your intended financial objective;
 - This may result in losing the financial benefit accumulated over the years
 - It may not be possible for you to obtain a similar level of protection on the same terms in the future.
 - You may not be insurable on standard terms;
 - You may have to pay higher premium in view of older age;
 - Surrendering/withdrawing your insurance policy for another policy could result in higher premiums and loss of specific policy features due to changes in age or health.
2. Additional Charges/ Fees
If you surrender/withdraw your policy and then a buy new policy or other investment product you will incur new charges. These may include:
 - Distribution Fee
Commission is paid to Agents/Financial Advisers on all new insurance policies/ investment products.
 - Policy Fee
A policy fee is usually incurred for each policy.
3. Other Options
If your policy has acquired cash value, you may choose to:
 - Apply for policy loan to meet short term financial needs
 - Convert to paid up policy
 - Reduce policy sum insured (applicable only to regular premium policies)
4. Seeking Advice From Your Advisor
Therefore, it is important to seek advice from your Financial Advisor Representative before early surrender/partial withdraw of your policy. Your Financial Advisor Representative can advise you on your options other than withdrawing the policy, explain the implications of each option and provide appropriate recommendations to you, taking into account your investment objectives, financial situation and particular needs.
5. If your policy has been used for exemption from the CPF Board's Home Protection Scheme (HPS), it must remain in force so that you and your family are protected from losing your HDB flat in the event of death, terminal illness or total permanent disability. If there are changes to the policy including the change of policy ownership, your exemption will be voided and you will be required to reapply for exemption from HPS by purchasing other private policies or apply to be insured under HPS. Otherwise, if you are using CPF monies to service the monthly instalment, CPF Board may automatically extend HPS coverage to you, based on the declared percentage that you are exempted for, subject to you being in good health
