How will I be informed if I qualify for the programme?

Once you meet the qualifying criteria, you will receive a welcome letter from Etiqa to inform you on your Esteemed Client status.

In the letter, there will be a dedicated link to guide you on how to redeem the privileges.

4.

Are there any exclusions for APE accumulation?

Online products, tranche products and renewal premium are not eligible for APE accumulation toward qualifying for the Esteem by Etiqa programme.

5.

How long does my Esteemed Client status last?

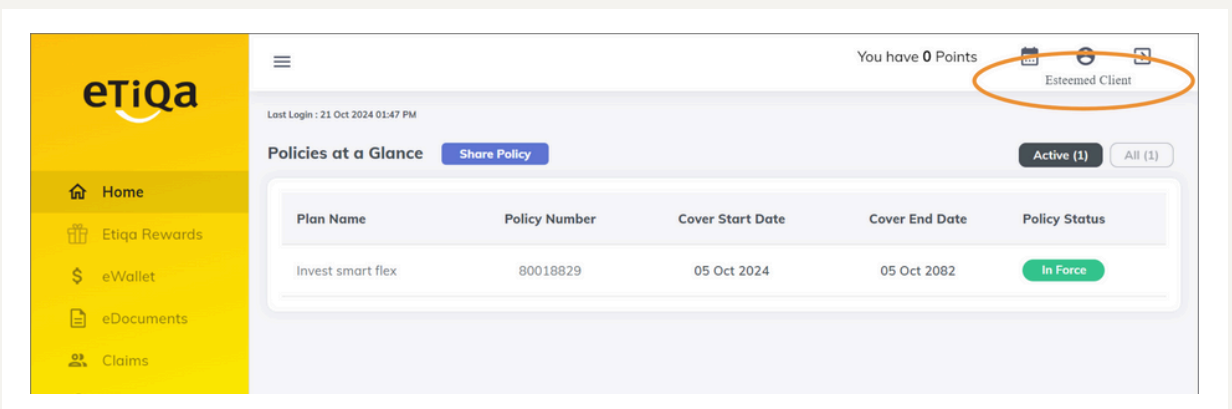

Your Esteemed Client status is valid for two (2) years from the date of your most recent inceptioned policy that qualifies. Once the status expires, or if the minimum inforced APE is not met, you will no longer be eligible for privileges.

6.

How do I check my status?

You will be able to view your Esteemed Client status when you login to Etiqa customer portal. If you no longer see the Esteemed Client status, it means your status has expired.

Alternatively, you may WhatsApp or call us at +65 6887 8777 / email us at customer.service@etiqa.com.sg to enquire.

7.

Can I transfer my privileges to someone else?

No, the programme privileges are strictly for the personal use of the Esteemed Client and cannot be transferred to or shared with others.

8.

Do I need to pay any fees to join this programme?

No, there are no fees to join the programme. You will qualify for the programme as long as you achieve the Qualifying APE through your eligible life insurance policies.

9.

What happens if I cancel (eg. freelook, surrender, lapse) one of my policies?

If you cancel a policy and it affects your total APE, you may risk losing your Esteem Client status if you no longer meet the qualifying criteria
