

REVISION TO CURRENT CREDITING RATES

Frequently Asked Questions

1. Why is Etiqa revising its crediting rate?

Interest rates have been gradually declining, while global financial markets face persistent investors' concerns about possible economic recession. These negative sentiments led to higher market volatility and impacted our asset yields. As a result, the crediting rates have been revised downward accordingly to ensure they are at a more sustainable level.

2. Which insurance plans are affected by the crediting rates revision?

eEASY save V policies are affected by this revision.

3. How will my policy be affected?

Effective from 06 August 2025 (inclusive) or your seventh policy year, whichever is later, the current crediting rate will be revised as below:

Details of Change
Crediting Rates: Current crediting rate for your account value will be revised to 1.20% p.a.

4. Is there anything I need to do on 6 August 2025?

No action is required from you. You still have the flexibility to withdraw your funds easily anytime, anywhere. You may view your policy details via the Tiq by Etiqa mobile application or in Your Online Self-Service Portal via Etiqa's website (www.etiqa.com.sg/login).

5. Who should I contact if I have further queries?
